

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT
ADM10-8002

ORDER AMENDING THE RULES OF
THE SUPREME COURT ON LAWYER REGISTRATION

In an order filed on February 17, 2021, we adopted amendments to the rules that define a lawyer’s active status, specifically by requiring lawyers to comply with a newly adopted rule that, in turn, requires uniform reporting of pro bono service and contributions. Order Promulgating Amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration, No. ADM10-8002 (Minn. filed Feb. 17, 2021). In explaining our decision to include all categories of pro bono service and contributions in reporting, we noted that the contributions that can be made by attorneys employed by government entities and judges may be limited by separate rules. Id. at 3, n.2. See, e.g., Minn. Code of Jud. Conduct 3.7 (establishing limits on activities in which judges can participate); Minn. R. Prof. Conduct 1.11 (establishing limits on government attorneys’ representation). These separate rules will limit the contributions that can be made by judges and attorneys employed by government entities.

Accordingly, the amendments approved on February 17, 2021, must be modified so that judges and attorneys employed by government entities are not required to comply with the reporting obligation. The amendments shown in the attachment to this order reflect the modifications made to the rules as amended by the order filed on February 17, 2021, to implement this decision. The amendment to Rule 23(H) of Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration, promulgated February 17, 2021, is not altered by this order.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration, as promulgated in the order filed February 17, 2021, are amended as shown in the attachment to this order. Rule 25 of the Lawyer Registration Rules as amended on February 17, 2021 and as further amended here is effective as of January 1, 2022. Rule 2A(6) of the Lawyer Registration Rules as amended on February 17, 2021 and as further amended here is effective as of January 1, 2023.

Rule 25. Uniform Reporting of Pro Bono Service and Financial Contributions

As part of the Lawyer Registration Statement, all attorneys who are authorized to practice law in Minnesota must report for the preceding calendar year: (1) the approximate number of hours of pro bono service provided as set forth in Rule 6.1 of the Minnesota Rules of Professional Conduct; and (2) whether the attorney has made any financial contributions to organizations that provide legal services to persons of limited means. Attorneys who are employed by government entities and judges are exempt from the reporting requirement established by this rule, but may voluntarily report services provided or financial contributions made if they so choose.
